Care Mobile Advisory Council Members Honored

Naples, FL, (January 15, 2010) - CHS Healthcare is pleased to announce that three members of its Ronald McDonald Care Mobile® Program Advisory Council are being honored by local foundations. Mollie Ottina has been named as a "Woman of Achievement" by The Greater Naples American Association of University Women, Tom Schneider has been chosen by The Education Foundation as a "Man of Distinction", and Emily Watt as a "Woman of Initiative" by the Community Foundation of Collier County.

"We are proud to have these community leaders associated with our program," said Lesa Peterson, RMCM Program Director, "they have been the driving force behind many of our Care Mobile initiatives. We, at CHS, congratulate them."
